

Media Release Policy

Media Release Policy for YASH SANGHAVI

Effective Date: August 2024

Introduction

At Yash Sanghavi, we value our community and respect attendees' privacy. This Media Release Policy outlines the terms under which we may capture and use images, video, and audio from our events.

Acknowledgment and Consent

By attending our events, you agree to the following:

- Photography and Recording: Our events may be photographed or recorded, capturing your image, likeness, and voice.
- Usage of Footage: These materials may be used for promotional, marketing, and business purposes, including on our website, social media, and other communication channels.
- No Compensation: You will not receive compensation for the use of your image, likeness, or voice in any recordings or photographs.

Scope of Use

Captured media may be used in various ways to promote the brand, including:

- Marketing materials like brochures, flyers, and advertisements.
- Digital content such as website images, social media posts, and newsletters.
- Educational materials like presentations and training videos.
- Media sharing with third-party partners for joint promotions.

Opt-Out Option

If you prefer not to be photographed or recorded, please inform a staff member or event organizer upon arrival. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate your request.

Revocation of Consent

To revoke consent for the use of your image or voice, contact us at hi@yanisa.in. We will strive to remove your likeness from future materials, though we cannot retract materials already distributed.

Legal Disclaimers

- Changes to the Policy: We may update this Media Release Policy at any time. Changes will be posted on our website and will take effect immediately.
- Third-Party Media: This policy does not cover media captured by third-party attendees. We are not responsible for third-party actions.
